Council Grange.

RESOLUTION BY SHACKLEFORD GRANGE, NO 191

Resolved, That in the opinion of this body that the interests of the Order, in this county. demand the immediate organization of a county council (as authorized by Art cle 28, Constitution State Grange,) to include the whole county, which should meet in Waco as the most convenient point.

Resolved. That we hereoy earnestly ask the co-operation of sister Granges in this matter, by sending delegates to meet ours in Waco at G J. Buck's law office.

It is always a pleasure for us to speak well of a deserving officer. We deem it a duty incumbent upon a public journalist to award a just meed of praise to him who does his duty. In this connection we wish to speak of Mr. Claybaugh, our efficient jaffor. He left his tarm and pleasant surroundings to take a place of great difficulty and responsibility, merely for the public good Since his administration commenced, no prisoners have escaped, and, indeed, it would be next to impossible to catch this wary and attentive officer if guard. Mr. C. is a gentleman of fine standing; and we trust he will be long re tained in his present place, for without additional help, in the way of guards, the perfect rafety of prisoners has been secured.

this setion on the part of Capt. Waller is the direct result of the care and foresight of Gov. Coke, in forwarding instructions to arrest criminals, to the officers, commanding the force for frontier protectien.

COMMENCEMENT SERVICES OF WACO FEMALE COLLEGE .- Annual sermon on Sunday, 14th inst., by Rev. J. D. Shaw, of Mexia.

Examination of classes begins on Monday, the 15th. Primary exhibition Monday night. Anniversary of the Literary Society on Tuesday night. Address by Rev. Horace Bishop, of Corsicana, Wednesday night, the 17th. Cantanta of New Year's Eve-Graduation Day, Thursday, 18th. Annual address by Rev. T. H. B. Anderson, of Belton.

Dr. J. H. Lane, a sterling farmer of the Bosque, in this county, was in to see us yesterday. Reports corn prespects gloomy for lack of rain, but cetton very fine. The Doctor tells us that in consequence of certain reverses and losses he found himself at the beginning of the crop season without corn to make a crop and no money to buy it with He drove ahead, however, relying solely upon the natural grasses as food for his teams; and now that the work is nearly all done his t-ams are in first rate - rder and some of them are really getting f t, and all this on nothing but prairie grass! Bully for Texas; it will be a long time yet before people starye in such s

A HORRIBLE ACCIDENT .- Mr J. W. Thibetof Mt. Calm, informs us that Mr. Bill Smith of Limestene county, about four or five miles South-east of Mt. Calm, killed a small bay mare, on Tuesday, that had on a fine saddle, to which was hung a number five calf boot; the boot is on a white man's leg, which is torn from the body at the hip. The mare was caught on Monday by Messre. Thomas and Jones, but broke away. The citizens of Mt. Calm and vicinity have searched for twenty miles all around that place, and up close to Waco, but as yet have been unable to find the body of the man This is published with the hope of finding some clue to the circumstances .- Advance.

THE MUTHODIST COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT. We understand that a most attractive pro gramme has been arranged, one feature of which will be Henry Schooller's great cantata of New Year's Eve, in three parts. In the first, old Father Time appears, reminding highlands of the Hudson to recuperate his the Old Year, who is still sitting on his throne, that his race is almost run. The four seasons, and his twelve daughters, are ummoned.

> Part second, Spring attended by Zephyr and Dew Drop appear. Flowers, Sunshine and Rambow furnish the make-up of this > Part third, the four seasons with their respective attendants, enter in procession, and sing a ferewell chorus to the Old Year The dressing and general "get-up" will be admirable, and we promise our readers an entertainment pleasing and instructive, alike to the youthful and the aged, on that occasion. Due announ ement will be made in the city pa-

Fiult trees and shrubberry mave come, as they well deserve to be; regarded as indispersanle requisites to a home. Wnether for ornament or utility they are alike desirable, and all considerations of pleasure aside, there is nothing that pays better in the get-up of a home than a judicious expenditure for shrubberry and fruit trees. It is important in making this expenditure, to get none but good stock, since the best requires no more toil or acreage than the interior, and the yield is incomparably more satisfactory. The irresponsible vendors of such things, that go through with stick not worth the space occupied, are test class buisance, and should be abated as

They not only obtain money under false pretences, but effectually defeat, in many in stances, a most commendable enterprise, which they falsely claim to promote.

We refer, in this connection, to the advertisement of the Waco Home Nursery as be ing entirely rehable and responsible and for many good reasons deserving the patronage so much of which is now given to irresponsible and unserupalous parties further from

How on Sunday.

About six o'clock Sunday afternoon, a clear ringing shot on the square, near the corner of Third and Franklin streets, roused the people in all that region. Soon a dense crowd was surging in that direction, evidenly under very great excitement. On repairing to the ground we found that a difficulty had a sourced between

MR G. D. OBRIEN AND MR. GUS. BASSNETT. It seems that O'Brien made the attacks knecked Mr. Bassnett down, and after beating him severely, was pulled away by the bystanders. Mr. Bassnett started on the run, pursued by O'Brien. After running a few paces Bassnett drew a derringer and fired, inflicting a severe contusion in the region of the pavel. This did not check O'Brien, who pursued Bas-nett to near the Patter on corper, where he overtook him and the beating was resumed, but the police interferred and hauled the parties to the lock-up. They gave bond p omptly, and yesterday morning were before his Honor, the Mayor. Barsnett was acquitted and O'Brien fixed ten collars and

Mr. Foster, for boisterous conduct, was fined ten dollars and costs, and Mr. Smith, & Knight's gallery.

The following letter explains itself, and who was accused of carrying concealed weapons was fined ten and costs, with forfeiture of weapon. We trust the hot blood is cooled, and that it will be long ere we are called upon to chronicle snother such dis graceful sorne on Sunday evening.

THE TEXAS GRAND PRIZE CONCERT.—
While we can not endorse lotteries, such as the Havana, Louisville, and others of the same character, we are compelled to admit that the present scheme of J. E. Foster of Houston, Texas, to distribute a large amount of real cetate and lands in Texas, will be of vast benefit to the State. Mr. Foster is adversising in over fivehundred newshapers throughout the United States. Betting forth the advantages of the State, in a manner calculated to induce many persons to immigrate to Texas. Should persons in other States draw a prize of land in Mr. Foster's distribution they are very likely to come to Texas and improve it. of land in Mr. Foster's distribution they are very likely to come to Texas and improve it. Mr. Foster is an old citizen-of Houston and Texas, and he and his schemes are highly en dorsed by the City Council of Houston in a published card. The concert takes place July 20th, and we can assure our patrons that the drawing will be fairly and honestly conducted, and that the $2, paid for a ticast may result in getting a valuable prize to the purchaser. Mr. F. will send discriptive circulars upon application.

August 16, 1873.

Mr. S. M. Lackland:

DEAR Sir—I have been sorely afflicted with Rheumatism for several years, so much so that at times I have not been able to walk without the greatest pain for two and three months together. I have tried every remedy, and been attended on by several good physicians, but have never experienced any relief until I was induced to try "Luckett's Liniment." After using three bottles I and myselt entirely well, and I cheerfully give this to the public, hoping that others may see this and prifit by my experience, and speedily seek relief in this truly wonderful medicine.
